

MY PéPé (grandfather) was drafted as a male nurse during the Vietnam War (1966-1968). He was in anesthesia, stationed at Fitzsimons Army Hospital, Denver, CO. My mother was born there. Although he never went to Vietnam, they would air EVAC wounded directly from Vietnam to Denver. 18 hours. Some died of wounds on the flight, others were too far gone to save. He later went on to serve in the First Gulf War (1990-1991).

PéPé made me the person I am today,
